Situation for the Week Ending June 24, 2011

Approved By:

Roy J. Taylor

Prepared By:

Quan Tran

Report Highlights:

Export rice prices went back up last week, due to increasing demand for export deliveries. Local paddy rice prices declined last week due to the ongoing harvest of paddy in the Mekong River Delta. Exportable rice volume, however, was still short due to recent wet weather adding delays to further processing.
